FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Attorney General's 19th Satellite Office to Open Jan. 17

(Phoenix, Ariz. – Jan. 13, 2005) Attorney General Terry Goddard today announced that his 19th Community Services Satellite Office will be opening at the Greater Urban League offices at 1402 S. Seventh Avenue in Phoenix. A grand opening celebration is scheduled for Tuesday, Jan. 17, at 3:30 p.m.

"We are honored to form this partnership with the Arizona Attorney General's office to provide a place for South Central Phoenix residents to learn more about consumer fraud protection," said George Dean, president and CEO of the Greater Phoenix Urban League. "We know that far too many of our friends and neighbors have been victims of consumer fraud or civil rights violations. This satellite office will be a neighborhood resource that can be our defense against such practices."

The Arizona Attorney General's Satellite Offices provide community-based venues that make it easier for residents to access information on consumer fraud, civil and victims' rights. Volunteers staff satellite offices, make educational presentations for community groups, distribute educational materials at community events and assist individuals with filing complaints or referrals for assistance.

The Greater Phoenix Urban League Satellite Office will be open Mondays from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. For more information about the Attorney General's Community Services Satellite Offices, please call 602.542.2123 or visit www.azag.gov.
